

WHO AM I? (#1)

1. I have a spring action handle with short blades used to cut heavy duty wire and corsage and boutonniere stems
2. I am used to remove thorns and leaves from stems
3. I am heated to a specified temperature; used to adhere materials to arrangements
4. I have a straight or hooked blade and used to cut floral stems
5. I am a clear plastic tube with a tight fitting rubber stopper and a rounded bottom.
6. I am a chemical mix used to extend the shelf life of flowers
7. I am waterproof and all-purpose; I am used to hold floral foam in place.
8. I am a spray used to clean and shine leaves.
9. I am used to store and display flowers in floral coolers.
10. I have blades that cut from both sides and am used to cut stems without crushing them.

WHO AM I? (#2)

1. I am used to cut through very thick or tough floral material with one cut.
2. I am quick drying, waterproof adhesive which will not brown leaves; I am available in liquid, spray and tape forms.
3. I am hand-held or stationary and used to keep scissors and knife blades sharp.
4. I am an extra long bladed knife and used to cut floral foam.
5. I am a green plastic tube with a cap and a sharp end; I can be inserted into floral foam.
6. I am used as a stem support device; I can be soaked in water and stems are inserted into me.
7. I am strong, malleable wire used to add decoration and support to designs; I am available in many different colors
8. I am used to hold floral foam with multiple prongs and have a water reservoir to keep foam saturated.
9. I am used to add sparkle and shine to bouquets and arrangements.
10. I am strong, malleable wire used to add decoration and support to designs; I come in many different colors.